5. [] LIAISON Called Bill Hogan, House Armed Services Committee staff, and discussed the agenda for tomorrow's meeting with the Intelligence Subcommittee.

Hogan asked if Peter Toma had met with Agency officials. I said he has on numerous occasions and that Frank Slatinshek, also of the Committee staff, had asked me for a paper on this which I am waiting for now. Hogan said he had been asked to go to Representative Bob Wilson's (R., Calif.) office tomorrow on this subject.

I advised Hogan of the President's decision to go to court on the AT&T matter. Hogan suggested we mention this tomorrow at the briefing.

16. [redacted] LIAISON Bill Hogan, House Armed Services Committee staff, called and said Chairman Lucien Nedzi would like us to come up on Thursday, 22 July at 10:30 for the wrapup briefing. I told him I would check this time with the Director.

Hogan asked if Peter Toma had come out to the Agency yesterday. I said he did, that [redacted] people had seen him and that Jack Blake, DDA, was seeing him today. Hogan said Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, and Chairman Nedzi are concerned about the precedent of having Toma make a formal presentation to the Intelligence Subcommittee. I told Hogan that Slatinshek asked us for a written assessment of Toma's presentation and that I would get it to him after Blake saw Toma. Hogan said he has not been back in touch with Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.), who has an interest in this case.

3. [REDACTED] BRIEFINGS Called Bill Hogan, House Armed Services Committee staff, in the interest of trying to reschedule Thursday's briefing for next Tuesday, explaining that the Director had another commitment with the White House. Hogan explained that the Committee was locked in and could not commence the session at 8:15 rather than 10:30 and that the Committee would be understanding if the Director could not attend. [REDACTED] the Director's Executive Assistant, was advised.

STAT

In response to my inquiry, Hogan assured me that they are trying every effort to break the CIARDS bill loose but that the calendars are saturated with bills reported out prior to the recess in order to make Budget Act deadlines and they were apprehensive about moving of the Rules calendar.
